Cravath's Frick Wins Games.

Cravath's Hille rick has won many games for the Phillies in days gone is world earles game or so if permitted to clouder he phillies in days gone should be read to cloud for most in his home ball lot.

One of the oddities concerning that short field is that Cravath is about the only pluyer who can amash a ball over il-yet he has done it often and easily.

Last summer the Phillies and Pirates were playing in Phillidelphia and Cravath broke up the game with a drive over that particular section of the fence.

"He Is Some Clubber."

That boy is some clubper—some clubber," enthusinstically exclaimed William F. Hasker, conserved the Phillies sinalard he someway in the trait of the fence.

Matthew Battling Nelson, the greatest plece of fighting machinery ever mould of While be does not say so to as many words, Nelson is though with the rings forever—as far as his being a principal in a bout is concerned. The one time fourable base now realizes that he has reached the tether of his fighting prociivities, and is ready to retire on his laurels.

Fighting was Battling Nelson's business for nearly a score of years and fighting will continue to be his business as long as ne is able to din into a promoter's care. The ring has been Bat's business and diversion for 19 years and he bas no intention of giving it up at this late date. But we maintain that Nelson has retired from the ring—as an metive participant in it.

Nelson, in a letter to the writer wishes it spread broadcast that he has undertaken the tanagement of George Lammerson, a Los Angeles handamweight, who has shown latent ability in the four round game on the Pacific coast. Little Lammerson was in Nelson's training camp while the Dane was prepoiling himself for his contest with Bohby Waugh last month, and the youngster impressed the former lightweight champlon with his speed and stamina. Lammerson's durability was what appealed most to Nelson, as it recalled to his mind the time he was the neast tireless man in the ring.

DR. J. T. M'CAMANT can get . action on his proposition to pick an all-star team from the Feldmans, Shelton-Paynes and Everybodys of the Commercial league and play the 20th infantry, if he is still of the same mind as he was last Sunday. The soldiers predict a victory over the Puritys on Sunday, which will give them the city honors, and they will then be glad to take on the medico's all-stars for the best three in five games. It's up to the doctor!

GRAHAM will be on the mound for the 20th infantry on Sunday and the chances are that Pete Leyva will bend them over for the Puritys. Pete proved a big surprise when he worked in the sensational 13-inning game against Wilson and if he pitches as well on Sunday, it's no cinch that even with Graham on the slab the soldiers will win. It should be a corking good game.

JIM BROWN believes that the Miami team would make a good card aganist the soldiers and he is making a strong endeavor to have a series of games arranged between his miners and the soldiers. It is likely that he will get the dates unless Dr. McCamant decides to go ahead with his all-star team.

COOTBALL will not hold the field at Rio Grande park this after-noon. The Fourth Field artillery suddenly cancelled their game with the School of Mines and accepted a date at Las Cruces with A and M. college and manager John J. Mc-Closkey had to get busy with another attraction. The Shelton-Paynes had been challenging the 20th infantry and the baseball game was arranged

THE days of high salaries for baseball players are about ever. The Federals now threaten to lop off a lot of high-salaried men who were stars a couple of years ago but who are backstiding on their fat salaries. With the Feds cutting expenses, it's a dead cinch that the O. B. crowd will do the same and salaries are nure to decline.
